(3) Upon receiving a statement under sub-section (2), the Chief-Executive after making such inquiries through a Commission of Inquiry to be appointed by him and in such other manner as he may think fit, determine the correctness or otherwise of the statement and also the legality or propriety of acquisition of such properties and assets by the person concerned.

- 4. If the Chief Executive is of the opinion that any person mentioned in Section 3 has acquired any property or assets by unlawful or improper means or by means of bribery, corruption, jobbery, favouritism, nepotism, wilful maladministration, wilful misapplication or diversion of public money or by abuse of whatever kind of official power or position the Chief Executive may direct such action to be taken against such person, as the Chief Executive may deem fit.
- 5. A person, who, being required to submit to the Chief Executive a statement of his properties and assets fails to submit statement or knowingly submits a false or incorrect statement shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years and/or fine and/ or forfeiture of the whole or part of his properties and assets.
- 6. (1) Save as otherwise provided in Section 7, a person who sells, transfers or otherwise disposes of any of the properties and assets in respect of which he is required to submit a statement under this Ordinance shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years and / or fine and / or forfeiture of the whole or part of his properties and assets.

(2) Nothing in this section shall apply to the operation of any bank account by a person for meeting his bonafide requirements or the sale, transfer, disposal of his property which he is required to do under any law or to meet any lawful obligation or in pursuance of any direction or order of a Court or other lawful authority.

7. (1) A person who owns, or has in possession or under his control directly or indirectly, either in his own name or in the name of any other person, any property or assets which he has reason to believe have been acquired by unlawful or improper means or by means of bribery, corruption, jobbery, favouritism, nepotism, wilful mal-administration, wilful misapplication or diversion of public money or by abuse of whatever kind of official power or position shall surrender such properties and assets in favour of the Government, in such manner, to such person and within such time as the Chief Executive may by order, specify.

(2) Subject to the provision of Section 11, no action of any kind shall be taken against a person who surrenders the properties and assets he is required to surrender under sub-section (1), except the forfeiture of such properties and assets.

8. A person who owns, or has in his possession or under his control, any properties and assets which he is required to surrender under Section 7 but fails to so surrender shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to fourteen years and/or fine and/or forfeiture of the whole or part of his properties and assets.

9. No Court or Tribunal shall take cognizance of an offence under Section 5, 6 and 7 of this Ordinance unless the Chief Executive has recommended punitive action against the accused.

10. (1) All Departments of the Government and of Corporations or institutions including autonomous or semi-autonomous bodies or associations controlled by the Government or in which the Government has any interest, which are concerned with the allotment of rural or urban land, the issuance of contracts, import, export licences, route permits or allotment of depots or agencies and selling or purchase of shares and stocks, shall within a period of fifteen days from the commencement of this Ordinance or within such period as may be specified by the Chief Executive from time to time submit to the Chief Executive, full particulars of the properties mentioned in this Section which have been issued, allotted, granted, purchased or sold to persons, mentioned in sub-section (1) of Section 3 between December, 1970 and August, 1977.

(2) The Department concerned may obtain the list of the persons mentioned in sub-section (1) of Section 3 from the Secretary Services and General Administration Department or Secretary Legislative Assembly or Secretary Council, as the case may be.

11. Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, a person who is required to submit a statement of properties and assets under this Ordinance, shall be disqualified from being elected or chosen as, and from being a member of Assembly or of the Council, if the properties and assets acquired by him during the period he remained as a Minister, Presidential Assistant, Special Assistant or Adviser to the Prime Minister or Member of Assembly or of the Council, are found by the Chief Executive to be disproportionate to his known sources of income, and the Chief Election Commissioner of Azad Jammu and Kashmir shall be informed accordingly.

Provided if, before the elections are held, a candidate of a political party from any constituency is disqualified under the provision of this section, all parties shall be entitled to nominate fresh candidates for that constituency and election in that constituency be held on such later date as the Chief Election Commissioner may notify in this behalf :

Provided further that, if the person disqualified as aforesaid is an independent candidate, election in the constituency concerned shall not be postponed unless there is no other contesting candidate in that constituency.

12. Repeal.- The Ministers, Members of Assembly and Council (Declaration of Assets) (Amendment) Ordinance, 1978, (Ordinance LXXXVI of 1978) is hereby repealed.
